

JOHN HENRY PATTERSON SAFARI

DAY 1: Nairobi/Tsavo West

Depart in the morning to Tsavo West National Park which is a vast expansion of African savanna with a more diverse array of habitats including open plains, semi desert scrub, woodland, Chyulu Hills and rock outcrops. It's famous for the Red Elephants, Oryx, and Gerenuk among other mammal's species and bird life. Other notable features include Mzima Springs which are water source for Mombasa Town, Shetani Lava Flow and Ash cones, which is an example of recent volcanic eruption. The Movie Ghost and the Darkness was shot here. Dinner and overnight at Kilaguni Serena Lodge or Ngulia Lodge.

DAY 2: Tsavo West National Park

Two game drives are scheduled for this day. The extensive diverse habitat offers an ideal area to search for pride of Lions, Buffaloes, Cheetahs, Giraffes, Zebras, Hippos and Wildebeests. Mzima Spring, underground water seepage from Chyulu hills is a good place to watch the Hippos. There is also a wealth and diversity of bird species. Dinner and overnight at Kilaguni Serena Lodge or Ngulia Lodge.

DAY 3: Tsavo East/Tsavo West National Park

Depart for the neighboring Tsavo East game park with enroute game viewing scheduled to arrive for lunch at the Voi Safari Lodge. Enjoy an evening game drive in the park once made famous by the Man-eaters of Tsavo more than a Century ago during the construction of the legendary 'Lunatic Express' rail road. Dinner and overnight at the Voi Safari Lodge.

DAY 4: Tsavo East/Nairobi

An early morning game drive permits further exploration of this great Park. The Park has a large number of birds estimated to be over 500 species. After breakfast depart for Nairobi arriving early afternoon. You can connect with one of our other exciting safari packages. You can also choose to visit a children's home, explore the shops or simply relax at the Kenyan beach for a few days before your departure.
